In the spring of 1935, Noah W. Kreider and his wife, the former Mary R. Hershey, and their two young sons, Richard and Noah Jr., moved from Bird-In-Hand to her parents' farm on Doe Run Road. Mary was born and raised on the farm which had remained in the Hershey family since it was first settled in 1739. Her father, John B. Hershey, a distant relative of Milton Hershey, sold the farm to Noah and Mary as his health was failing. They started small with 102 acres of land, a dozen dairy cows, and 200 chickens. In the early years, they took vegetables grown in their garden to Manheim and peddled them from house-to-house. Today, the Kreider family, under the third generation leadership of Ron Kreider and a dedicated staff of approximately 450 people, operate a sizeable and diverse farming and consumer products business encompassing over 3,000 acres.

Step back in time to the year 1942 in the renovated Lititz Record Express Newspaper building, where you will experience a different kind of shopping down Zum Anker Alley. Owners Bud and Alice Bracken travel the country selling her unique silk floral arrangements at craft shows and as they do, they find work from other artisans that they purchase and now have in their shop. Along with the original floral arrangements, you will find whimsical garden stakes, solar and glow-in-the-dark items, limited edition realistic wild birds for the bird lover, framed prints from well-known artists, original works of art and collectibles, limited edition prints, decorative fans in the shape of animals along with items for all wine enthusiasts. Please be sure to visit their gallery on the second floor.

At Charles F. Snyder Funeral Homes, we believe community is the foundation of our business. We seek this out in the small businesses we support, and we expect that our Lancaster County neighbors do too. Our first funeral home was opened 70 years ago by Charles F. Snyder Sr. That funeral home in downtown Lancaster, as well as our Lititz Pike, Lititz Borough (Spacht-Snyder) and Millersville funeral homes, continue to be family-owned and family-operated to this day. Being family owned means we are accountable to our customers, and that they have a direct connection to the ownership. This is the reason we strive to treat each family we serve as if they're a part of our own. We're delighted to be a part of the downtown Lititz community!
